

CELEBRATING VICTORIES

BSME Learning Festival is a competition across schools in the Middle East and tests students' ability in Maths, English Literature and Science. Not only does it test their knowledge but also shows how self motivated and driven the students are as they need to do as many questions as possible over three days. We are so incredibly proud of all our students who put so much time and effort into the competition over three days and want to give a special mention to Omar Abel khalek, Adam Ellaboudi and Mohamed Abdrabou who achieved 1st, 2nd and 3rd place globally out of more than 1500 students who entered the competition. What role models these students are.

 Adam Ellaboudi

"It was such an excellent opportunity to compete in the EP BSME competition among thousands of people. At first, I was excited and full of energy but later on, I got tired and started to feel down. But with the support of my teachers and family members, I kept on going until the end. Finally, when the competition ended and I made it to the top 3 I felt proud and relieved. "Not all dreamers are winners, but all winners are dreamers"

 Omar Abel khalek

"I would like to share my experience of the EP competition. The EP competition was a different way of learning, it introduced the concept of learning from your mistakes and pushing through without giving up. I was motivated by my teachers and friends to continue the fight and managed to win first place globally in the competition by answering 10,000 questions correctly. I wouldn't have achieved this without the support and how much others believed in me. I am happy i have been through this experience."

 Mohamed Abdrabou

"I wanted to share that the EP competition gave me the chance to compete with my friends and other schools in a very fun and motivating way. I actually succeeded in achieving third place globally which was after solving about 8500 questions correctly. It was a really good experiment and I wouldn't have achieved any of this if my teachers and friends hadn't supported me! I was really happy after this achievement which I should celebrate with my school."

CELEBRATING VICTORIES

Out of the strong belief adopted by the staff in the Arabic Studies department on how important it is to instil a sense of patriotism in our students, promote their sense of belonging and encourage them to have pride in their country's victories throughout history, we celebrated the fifty anniversary of the world astonishing well-deserved victory accomplished by the Egyptian armed forces on 6th October 1973. We have tried to set it up in a way that shall reflect their different talents and creativity. students danced, acted, and read poetry.
